To: Advanced Studies and Leadership Program Student

From: ASLP Administrative Staff

Date: March, 2017

Welcome to ASLP!

During our three-week program you will be the “GUESTS” of Massachusetts Maritime Academy. Our expectation is that you conduct yourselves as responsible students.

The three-week ASLP program emphasizes self-discipline and responsibility. As previously stated in our catalog, responsible behavior is a basic requirement of our summer program thus the expectation is that students will comport themselves in a manner that will engender respect for self, for ASLP and for the Massachusetts Maritime Academy. We fully expect that you will make both your families and your schools proud and pleased with their decision to send you to the Program.

The enclosed ASLP Student Handbook contains general program information, rules and regulations, the harassment policy, bullying policy and the Code of Conduct.

We look forward to seeing you this summer.

XVIII. Cash and Valuables

A. It is strongly recommended that cash on hand be limited to $20.00.

B. Valuables should NOT be brought to the Program.

XIX. Telephones

The ASLP office phone number will be mailed to you prior to the start of the Program. Office hours will also be shared at that time. An emergency telephone number of the Program Director will also be provided to you before the start of the Program.

In an EMERGENCY only, if you are unable to reach us at the numbers listed above, you may call campus police. This number will be sent to parents prior to the start of the program.

Cell phones are NOT allowed. Phone service for students will be available in the evening at the proctor's office on each dormitory floor.

XX. Field Trips

Field trips are an integral component of many of the ASLP courses. If your son/daughter is enrolled in one of these classes, he/she will be transported to and from Massachusetts Maritime Academy for said field trips under the supervision and direction of the ASLP staff who will exercise their responsibility for reasonable and appropriate care and supervision of your child. It is understood that parents have approved of said trips unless we are notified in writing of a parent’s objection.

XXI. College Facilities

Use of the facilities during the three weeks of our program is shared with other programs as well as cadet undergraduate students. Exemplary conduct on the part of our students is expected at all times in order that we not create problems for other programs or a disruption of adult level classes or studies.

CAPE COD COLLABORATIVE
ADVANCED STUDIES AND LEADERSHIP PROGRAM
CODE OF CONDUCT

The Advanced Studies and Leadership Program (ASLP) conducted at Mass. Maritime Academy (MMA) is under the jurisdiction and control of the Board of Directors of Cape Cod Collaborative (CCC).

PURPOSE

To ensure that the students enrolled in the Program are in a safe and secure environment in the dormitory, classrooms, laboratories, off-campus field trips, dining room, athletic fields, recreational areas, auditorium, and on campus.

PHILOSOPHY

The emphasis of ASLP is on self-discipline - it underlies the entire structure of our summer program. Self-discipline is training that develops self-control, character, and consideration of the rights of others. Our students are expected to conduct themselves accordingly.

Students enrolled in the Program are expected to treat all members of the Program community with dignity and respect.

Students who lack the maturity and responsibility for managing their own lives should not undertake the Advanced Studies and Leadership Program. The session is brief and intensive, and separation from the Program will be necessary for students who cannot meet the responsibilities for living under the few reasonable and necessary rules.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

EXPECTATIONS

Students are expected to meet all appointments and not neglect their work. Possession or use of controlled substances, alcoholic beverages, tobacco; possession of weapons; fighting; stealing; profanity; vandalism/destruction of property; harassment; and insubordination are forbidden. Students are expected to dress tastefully, appropriately, and informally. Students are responsible at all times for maintaining socially acceptable behavior during all Program activities.

Due process procedures are observed for serious misconduct and suspension or expulsion from the Program. The Code of Conduct is included with the Letter of Acceptance and published in the Student Handbook. It is reviewed during the scheduled orientation meetings prior to the beginning of the Advanced Studies and Leadership Program and again during student orientation the first day of the Program. Enrollment in the ASLP is acceptance by the parents and student of the Code of Conduct.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Cape Cod Collaborative reserves the right to establish and maintain the Rules and Regulations of the Advanced Studies and Leadership Program as delineated in the Student Handbook. In addition, the Executive Director and Program Director and his/her assistants may at any time enact reasonable rules and regulations without prior notice that are consistent with the mission of ASLP and establish disciplinary procedures that insure the students enrolled in the Program are in a safe and secure environment.

Dress

Students' clothing will be consistent with the Rights and Responsibilities in this Code of Conduct. Students will comply with reasonable requests of any staff member regarding hats, footwear, student dress, and/or inappropriate clothing.

Liability

Students are personally liable or responsible for actions resulting in the loss or damage of property of others or the Program or College and for behavior which interferes with the rights, education or dormitory life of other students. Any student experiencing or witnessing such violation of rights or property is expected to report incidents to a Proctor, Resident Administrator, Program Director, or Teacher.

Unsupervised Areas

Students are not allowed in unsupervised areas. Areas, which are not supervised by a teacher or member of the residential staff can pose a safety hazard or invite inappropriate behavior.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual, racial, ethnic, religious, and or sexual orientation harassment in any form is not allowed at the Program. If you believe you have been the victim of harassment, talk to a member of the Administrative Team as soon as possible. A discussion will take place with the alleged harasser to determine if discipline is warranted, but most importantly to ensure the behavior will stop.

The range of sexual harassing behaviors includes, but is not limited, to the use of profanity, telling off-color jokes or making sexist comments and innuendos, leering, pinching, grabbing, suggestive verbal comments, spreading sexual gossip, pressure for sexual activity, unwanted advances and unwanted physical contact of a sexual nature.

Bullying Conduct

Bullying, as defined in M.G.L. c. 71, § 37O, is the repeated use by one or more students of a written, verbal, or electronic expression or a physical act or gesture or any combination thereof, directed at a target that:

- i. causes physical or emotional harm to the target or damage to the target's property;
- ii. places the target in reasonable fear of harm to himself or herself or of damage to his or her property;
- iii. creates a hostile environment at school for the target;
- iv. infringes on the rights of the target at school; or

- v. materially and substantially disrupts the education process or the orderly operation of a school.

Cyber-bullying

Cyber-bullying is bullying through the use of technology or electronic devices such as telephones, cell phones, computers, and the Internet. It includes, but is not limited to, email, instant messages, text messages, and Internet postings. See M.G.L. c. 71, § 37O for the legal definition of cyber-bullying.

Retaliation

Retaliation is any form of intimidation, reprisal, or harassment directed against a student who reports bullying, provides information during an investigation of bullying, or witnesses or has reliable information about bullying.

Reasonable Search and Seizure

If a student is suspected of violating Program rules or state law, he or she may be subject to reasonable search and seizure by a program administrator including the search of his or her dormitory room, personal effects and or person.

Minor Infractions

Minor infractions in the classrooms are handled by the Teachers. In the dormitory, minor infractions are handled by the proctors and resident administrators, and may also involve the Program Director and his/her assistants. Minor infractions may also involve the Executive Director. Disciplinary action is limited to restrictions and or loss of privileges to attend social events.

Serious Infractions

Serious infractions are divided into three groups - A, B, and C.

- A. Those which could involve a minimum suspension of one day
- B. Those which could involve suspension -minimum of three days
- C. Those which could involve suspension, expulsion or exclusion

Serious infractions are handled by the Program Director, and may involve legal action. Serious infractions include, but are not limited to the following violations:

Serious infractions are divided into three groups - A, B, and C.

Group A

- Open profanity
- Stealing (restitution will be required)
- Vandalism or destruction of property (restitution will be required)

- Violation and/or conviction of any state or federal law
- Possession of a weapon
- Inappropriate sexual contact
- Use, possession and or selling/distributing tobacco and or tobacco products

The Cape Cod Collaborative reserves the right to discipline students up to possible exclusion from the Program for any conduct not listed above which in any way interferes with the conduct of the Program or which impugns the reputation of Cape Cod Collaborative/ASLP.

DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES AND DUE PROCESS

In determining the severity of the penalty or suspension the following criteria may be considered:

- a. student’s previous disciplinary records
- b. severity of the disruption of the Program
- c. degree of danger to self, others, and the Program in general
- d. degree to which the student is willing to change his/her inappropriate behavior

Due Process Procedures

1. The incident will be investigated by the Program Director and/or his/her assistants.
2. The student will be advised of the evidence against him/her and be given an opportunity to present evidence and fully explain his/her side of the incident.
3. For breaches of the ASLP Rules and Regulations the Program Director is the adjudicator of fact, and when disciplinary action is contemplated, he/she determines the appropriate disciplinary remedy.
4. The student has the right to a prompt decision.
5. The Program Director has the authority to issue discipline up to suspension of three days.
6. If a suspension of three days or more, or expulsion from the Program is recommended by the Program Director, the recommendation, including the grounds for the recommendation, will be submitted in writing to the Executive Director. The student will be suspended for one to three days. Within the suspension period, the student has the right to an expulsion hearing with the Executive Director. The meeting will be conducted according to the following procedure.

- a. Verbal presentation of the charges. If requested, the charges will be presented in writing.
- b. The right to present evidence and to fully explain his/her side of the incident.
- c. The right to a prompt decision including specific grounds for the decision. If requested the decision will be presented in writing.

7. The decision of the Executive Director is final.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Alcohol/Drug Paraphernalia - any object used in the consumption, sale, or distribution of alcohol, drugs, or other controlled substances. In addition, ASLP forbids students from possessing jewelry, personal adornments, or clothing with insignia, logos, decals, or other trademarks which are associated with the use of alcohol, drugs, or tobacco products.

Appeal - A written request by a parent or guardian for a meeting to review a disciplinary decision.

Cooling-Off Period - The parent/guardian is contacted and the student is sent home overnight. Final decision on disciplinary action is subject to a meeting of the student, parent, and Program Director.

Crossing over - Presence in the off limit sections of the dormitory.

Expulsion - Permanent exclusion for the remainder of the Advanced Studies Program and loss of tuition and fees.

Suspension - Exclusion from the Advanced Studies Program for a specific number of days. The Program Director has the right to suspend, and the parent/guardian has the right to appeal this decision in writing to the Executive Director subsequent to a one day cooling-off period.

Possession - To hold on one's person or in one's belongings. This includes, but is not limited to, items located in the student's dormitory room such as in or on one's desk, in or on one's bureau, in one's closet, or on or under one's bed.

Unauthorized departure from campus - Leaving campus during the summer session by means other than by being accompanied by a parent, an adult authorized by the parent to remove his/her child from campus, or a sanctioned ASLP employee.

Harassment - Words or action that create a hostile, threatening, or unfriendly climate.

Minor infractions - Incidents that do not impact the safety and security of oneself or others.

Serious infractions - Incidents that are a violation of the written rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Directors.

Sexual Harassment - Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

Bullying Conduct - More fully defined in M.G.L. c. 71, § 37O, bullying is the repeated use by one or more students of a written, verbal, or electronic expression or a physical act or gesture or any combination thereof

Inappropriate sexual conduct: Any intimate behavior between students that transgresses the level of holding hands.

Program Administrators: Executive Director, Director of Special Projects, Program Director, Assistant Program Director, Resident Administrator(s).
